Another name for Hartwell was Hartwell Taylor Paul Davis.

General Notes: Hartwell Davis and his brothers, Frank and Mike, were raised by thier aunt Agnes Wren Runnells in Houston, TX. She was a strict but devout disciplanarian who instilled in them a strong knowledge of the Bible. They were sent to a private Church of Christ school. Hartwell ran away from home at the age of 12, and spent several years living in missions, reform school, hobo jungles, hoping freight trains, and in foster placements. Finally at the age of 17, Hartwell returned to his home town of Baytown, TX where the sheriff took him under his wing and got him his first real job as an orderly at San Jacinto Methodist Hospital. Hartwell had his own apartment and car at the age of 17, worked full time at the hospial and returned to school. At the age of 19 he joined the Army.

Medical Notes: Wounded in Vietnam in 1967 while on patrol. Shrapnel wounds were to back and neck for which Hartwell received a medical pension and VA disability of 10%.

Noted events in his life were:

- He served in the military US Army in Jun 1965-Aug 1968. Hartwell enlisted in the U.S. Army for Special's Forces training in June of 1965. His basic training was taken at Fort Polk, LA. He was selected by his company (Company E, 3rd Battalion, 5th Brigade) to attend the NCO academy in Fort Ord, CA. At Fort Ord, Hartwell graduated 2nd in his class at the NCO Academy and finished his Advanced Infantry Training. He was then sent to Fort Benning, GA for jump school. During paratrooper training, Hartwell changed his mind about being a paratrooper or Special Forces and dropped out of the training. He was then assigned to the 1st Air Cavalry Division in Vietnam. He was assigned to the 1st of the 7th Cavalry but the unit had experienced heavy casulaties (A movie "When We Were Soldiers" with Mel Gibson depicted the major incident of that combat company). Hartwell was later transferred to B Company, 1st of the 5th Cavalry. He was assigned to a Long Range Recon unit and was wounded by friendly mortar fire while on patrol in February, 1967. Hartwell was shipped to the 107th General Hospital in Yokohama, Japan for his wounds to heal then returned stateside about April or May of 1967.

Descendants of Robert (Crowdson) Crowson

This email was received from Steve Hass (C Company 1/5th Cavalry) Steve writes, "I remember a few names of guys in B Company who I went to AIT and jump school with and who came over as replacements the same time I did. I don't know what platoon they were in. One was John Evans from Oklahoma or Texas. He was killed in 2/67 in a friendly fire incident with about 6 others when their patrol was hit by mortar fire from the B Company mortar platoon. The other was Jeff Keel. He was a Kiowa Indian from Oklahoma who made it home. The battalion stayed in the Bon Song area until sometime in late 1967 and then went up north in I Corps and the Khe Sang area to relieve marines."

This appears to be the incident in which Hartwell was wounded while on patrol spying on an enemy village.

Hartwell was assigned to the 2nd Armored Division in Fort Hood, TX and quickly regained rank. Because of war time he was promoted to an E5 but worked an E7 slot as the Personnel NCO for brigade headquarters. He was then transferred to be the NCOIC on the General's Headquarters Staff at the Civil Riot Command center during the 1968 civil disturbances due to the Vietnam war. Hartwell was finally discharged with an Honorable Discharge in August of 1968. He earned the Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Purple Heart, and the Army Commendation Medals.

- Holy Spirit Baptism: Jun 1972, Baytown, TX. United Pentecostal Church pastored by Lonnie Marcus. a revival was being held by Rev. Wayne Huntley. - He was educated at Robert E Lee Junior College in 1972 in Baytown, TX.
- He was educated in 1975 in Texas Bible College, Houston, TX. Hartwell (who decidedly now went by Paul) entered Texas Bible College and became Vice President of his Freshman's class.
