- Fact: Email from Melvin reference grandfather, 06/14/06. I got one e-mail back from Daemon as undelivered that I sent to you. In it I asked for a mailing address so i could send you a copy of the Mageors Family Tree. that I put together. I started the tree even If my kids did not seem to think it was important. It starts with George Mageors up to the present. All I know about George is that I think he was born in Tenn.. He was in the War between the states. He was married two times. Melvin Mageors
- He worked as an U S Postal Service. Melvin worked 33 years for the US Postal Service
- He served in the military U S Navy in 1943. Served in WW II and was recalled during the Korean War
- Fact 1: Email from Melvin RE: Indian Heritage, 25 Jun 2006. I did check the Ellis Island page. Mageors is spelled every way but our way. We think it was a mix up some where along the way. I know it was spelled our way during the war between the states. My great grandfather was in it and I have a copy of a file on his #2 wife asking for his pension. Do not know if she got it. I have one picture of him but it is so old its not very good. James Carol Mageors once told my mom when she asked our nationality that we were Black Dutch I could not find any thing on it until a article came out in our paper talking about it. It said that during the Trail Of Tears march the Cherokees told people as they were passing that they were Black Dutch. How true this is I do not know. But my Mom always told us we were part Indian. Most all Indians that I see have high cheek bones and so do we. At least my family has them. My Mom had a old picture of a woman in full Indian dress. She said it was my great grandfathers first wife. She let one of the family have it to have a copy made but never got it back. My mother went to a Nursing home because of her health and could not remember who got it. I know my grandfather was born in Tenn.
